
For: School Boards, Superintendents, School Administrators, and All Other Concerned Stakeholders who are struggling to make schools better

From Education Week

More Than a Quarter of Schools Could Be Flagged as in Need of Improvement Under ESSA, Experts Say

States are beginning to release their lists of schools that need extra help and there's a particular group of schools that experts are watching closely: Additional Targeted Schools. It could end up describing anywhere from 30 to 70 percent of schools.

<http://blogs.edweek.org/edweek/campaign-k-12/2018/12/essa-schools-improvement-target-additional-subgroups.html>

Our work emphasizes that ALL schools want to improve how they address barriers to learning and teaching and re-engage disconnected students. See

> Addressing Barriers to Learning: In the Classroom and Schoolwide and > Improving School improvement

Both resources can be freely accessed at http://smhp.psych.ucla.edu/improving_school_improvement.html

Please share with relevant stakeholders
