

Making the Case for Community Outreach

(1) Make a priority list of the types of community involvement and outreach activities you would like to see your school enhance/develop this year and those you would like to see in place over the next few years.

(2) Outline some major points that could be used to make the case for putting more effort and resources into community outreach mechanisms/programs.